Tremaine Defeats German; Hollis and Estes Draw

Resorting to his opponent's cave man tactics Andy Tremaine took the measure of Germany's be-whiskered Count Von Bromberg in one of the featured wrestling matches at the outdoor arena on Uncapher avenue last night. Ken Hollis of Albuquerque N M and Toots Estes of Elk City Okla battled to a draw amid the boos of a crowd aroused at the illegal roughing of Hollis. In a special 30-minute preliminary Art Perkins of Detroit and Swede Hanson of Sweden also fought to a draw.

The first round of the Tremaine-Von Bromberg match which went 23 minutes with the German grappler roughing his opponent at every opportunity and finally winning the fall with a [illegible] hold [illegible] his molars to [illegible] himself the Count punched and knee-[illegible] Tremaine into a groggy condition and then secured the fall.

Irked by his opponent's rough stuff the Phoenix Ariz wrestler came back fast in the second round to even the scrap by scoring a fall in 90 seconds. Tremaine attacked his opponent with the fury of a mad man and after pummelling him into the ropes applied a leg spread which forced the Count to concede the fall. The final round went to Tremaine in 10 minutes after he had driven Von Bromberg from the ring and refused to let him return. The Count nearly won the deciding fall with a crab hold when the scrappers fell into the ropes but Tremaine returned with a series of shoulder spills and a body press to take the fall and match.

Ken Hollis roared in from the west last night and gave fans plenty of reasons why he is considered the scourge of the Pacific coast. With a slight weight advantage over the Elk City youth Hollis roughed and mauled his way into the disfavor of Marion fans. Repeated warnings from Referee Pop Browning of Toledo failed to bring a halt to Ken's punching, finger [illegible] ing, hair pulling and eye gouging.

Despite the rough stuff he handed Estes it took him 26 minutes to secure the opening fall. [illegible]

Lee Street's entry in the Sunday school league No 1 became the first team to qualify for Little World series competition when it nailed the coveted pennant as the result of Forest Lawn's defeat at the hands of the Presbyterians last night 11 to 2.

Lee Street received a forfeit from Reformed in its season ending game last night finishing with a record of 12 victories in 14 games. Until last night the Forest Lawn aggregation was the only other contender for the title and could have tied up the race by winning its remaining two games. When Forest Lawn fell before the Presbies it was the team's third defeat of the season and automatically eliminated it from a claim for the title.

In the pennant deciding game at Garfield park the Presbyterians broke the ice with a lone tally in the second inning. Forest Lawn retaliated with two runs in the final half of the inning to regain the lead. Undaunted the Presbyterians staged a surprising comeback and in the third frame shoved over seven runs to gain a margin which was never threatened.

Maynard Snyder Forest Lawn hurler who has kept his club near the top by his mound performances was nicked for seven hits in the fateful third inning. Lowery the opposing pitcher held the heavy hitters of Forest Lawn's team to seven safe bingles and never permitted more than one hit in an inning except in the second stanza.

Forest Lawn finished the loop race in second position with 10 wins in 13 games and an average of 769 followed by the Epworth Seniors who won nine of 14 contests. The Presbyterians who last night shattered Forest Lawn's pennant hopes were relegated to fourth place with seven wins in 12 games and two postponed conflicts.

Two postponed games in the No 1 league Forest Lawn vs Trinity Baptist and Epworth No 1 vs Presbyterians which had been scheduled for Wednesday night have been cancelled. The games would have had a bearing on the final standings of the participating teams but because the pennant race was decided by the Forest Lawn defeat last night the games have been cancelled.

The score by innings of last night's game follows

Three All-Star Contests May Decide Flag Winner

Upon the outcome of three All Star night league games which may be played this week hinges the pennant claims of two leaders in the floodlight loop. At the close of the regulation season last Friday night the Axe Funeral Home, Marion Steam Shovel and Gasco clubs remained as the only contenders for the flag.

The Axe Funeral Home team heads the standings with a half game lead on the Diggers but still has two postponed conflicts to be completed while one of the M S S games remains disputed. Gasco has dropped four games while M S S has dropped three and the Axe aggregation two which means that if either of the top teams win any of their remaining games it will automatically eliminate any claims which Gasco might have.

The Axe squad was scheduled to meet the Moores and Ross team under the lights at Lincoln park tonight but the game was postponed early today because of the conflict with activities in connection with the dedication of Mt Vernon avenue. The previous meeting of the M & R and Axe teams was rained out while earlier in the season Axe scored a 2 to 0 victory over the dairy's entry. The Axe nine must win over Moores and Ross and Elks teams to have a clear claim to the title.

However should the Axe club drop either of its games M S S could finish in a tie depending upon the outcome of its game which was scheduled for last Wednesday night with the Elks. At that time officials reported that the contest was rained out but it was later learned that M S S players planned to file a protest with the softball commission tonight. The Diggers it was reported claim that the game was not rained out, that their squad had a full line-up on the field, that their opponents failed to present a complete roster of players and therefore they should receive the game as a forfeit.

Depending upon the commission's action tonight the status of the leading teams remains in question. Should M S S be awarded a forfeit the Axe team would have to win both of its conflicts to have undisputed first place. If the commission rules the M S S Elks game should be played the Axe team has even a better chance to garner an undisputed claim. If the commission rules that the protested game should be played it will probably be scheduled for Lincoln park tomorrow night.

ANDERSON TOPS LIST OF SHOVEL BATSMEN

Hits 426 Average To Lower Shoup to Second Place, Robbins Third

Hitters of the Marion Steam Shovel baseball club are being paced by Anderson catcher who today heads the list in the individual performances at the plate. Anderson has a 426 average with 20 hits in 47 times at bat to maintain a three point lead over F V Shoup playing-manager who was at the top of the standings last week.

Francis Robbins the Diggers left fielder has climbed into the third spot only one point behind Shoup by his hitting sprees in recent games. Robbins was credited with four bingles in five trips to the plate in Marion's win over Broadway Sunday afternoon at Lincoln park.

TONY CUCCINELLO Bees—His [illegible] inning single scored two runs that beat Phillies 9-7.

Red Birds Whip Saints, 6-4, As Brewers Slump

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO Aug 11—If Manager Gabby Street's St Paul club can form the habit of winning a game or two when Milwaukee loses the Saints once again may get a chance to worry the Brewers for the American association leadership.

For several weeks the Saints and Brewers put on an exciting battle that saw the lead change almost from day to day. Then the fast traveling Brewers stepped out Sunday to win a double bill as the Apostles split boosting the Milwaukee lead to three and one half games over the Street crew.

Yesterday St Paul lost another chance to gain ground losing 6 to 1 to Columbus as Indianapolis stopped Milwaukee 6 to 1. The Red Birds scored two unearned runs in the sixth inning to whip the Apostles. Mike Ryba allowed 10 hits to only nine his mates collected.

Jim Turner pitched effectively as Milwaukee bowed to Indianapolis. Catcher Delores's homer in the ninth deprived the tribe hurler of a shutout. Luke Hamlin was pounded for seven hits and four runs in the first four frames. Fred Berger's home run with one man on in the second producing what proved to be the winning runs.

The Minneapolis Millers displayed good pitching and power at the plate as they whipped Toledo 9 to 4 in the series opener. Al Milnar allowed only five hits and for seven innings gave only one safety.

Kansas City defeated Louisville 2 to 1 in a night game. Jim Peterson holding the Blues to five hits as the Colonels gained only two more off the delivery of Hal Smith.

CARDS DEFEAT CUBS TO REGAIN FIRST; YANKEES LOSE, 13-4

Dizzy Wins Despite Fight With Carleton, Senators Drub 3 Yank Hurlers.

By The Associated Press

Should the baseball fates give the St. Louis Cardinals the 1936 National league pennant by one game or less over Chicago's Cubs Charles Grimm probably would go down in the frayed record books as the Good Time Charlie who gave away the flag.

The Cub pilot made the sportsmanlike gesture yesterday of allowing Dizzy Dean to remain in the first game of the important Cub-Cardinal series after the pitcher was about to be chased out by umpires for fighting Tex Carleton.

Grimm talked the umps into letting Dizzy stay and the Red Bird star proved his gratitude by handcuffing the Cubs 7 to 3 dropping them to second place.

The chances are that the Cards who drove Lonnie Warneke to cover with a four run barrage in the fourth inning to break up a close game would have won without the Great Dizzy. If that game alone separates the two teams at the finish Grimm will be accused of being too tender hearted.

The fiery Carleton leaped out and they clinched and scuffled until players separated them. To the amazement of 30,000 fans Dean resumed the mound and it was explained that Grimm had pleaded successfully against his expulsion.

Brooklyn snapped the Giants seven game winning streak 6 to 5. Three hits and an error turned the trick for the Stengel crowd.

New York's Yankees riding along with a seemingly invincible margin in the American league race absorbed one of their neatest lickings of the year yesterday as Washington pounded three pitchers for 18 hits and a 13 to 4 victory.

It was the first Senator triumph of the season at Yankee Stadium and Jimmy Deshong ex-Yankee hurler led the procession with eight hits. The defeat trimmed the Yankee lead over Cleveland's idle Indians to 11½ games with 48 to play.

The Boston Bees rallied sharply in the closing innings to hand the luckless skidding Philadelphia Phillies their eighth straight set back 9 to 7. Other teams were idle.

TUTTLE BATS .500 IN 12 GAMES FOR GRILL

Saratoga Grill's softball team a member of the district Sunday loop has been credited with a team batting average of 297 per cent according to figures compiled and announced today by Robert Putman manager of the team.

Tuttle centerfielder of the club leads the regulars in individual hitting with a record of 18 safeties in 36 trips to the plate for an even 500 per cent. Tuttle has played in 12 games while Ruppert who bats in third position in the line up and has played in 1[illegible] games has clouted the ball for 370 per cent. Individual averages follow

Jap Swimmers Puzzle Experts At Berlin Pool

By The Associated Press

BERLIN Aug 11—The question of what makes Japan's swimmers scoot through the water so fast has experts puzzled around the Olympic pool [illegible] even tighter than when the power[illegible] faced [illegible] first sprang their [illegible] on the Los Angeles games four years ago.

After four years of study the world's coaches are no nearer the [illegible].

Someone suggested after the 1932 games that the Nipponese were getting a lift from their oxygen tanks. But there is no a car of lifting gas anywhere in sight this time and they are tearing through the water faster than ever.

This is an almost entirely new crop most of whom are under 20.

What makes them go so fast is a question even the spectators are fond of trying to solve. The Japanese say "I think maybe we practice harder." But rival coaches declare that is impossible.

Some say it is because of their superb leg action. Their sprint swimmers can get seven leg beats to each arm stroke.

Nevertheless close observers insist that the Americans and others employ the same leg beat and the same powerful crawl stroke.

Whatever their secret there is no doubt the Japanese [illegible] smoother, prettier picture than the others. Even some [illegible] swimmers look awkward in comparison.

The concensus around the [illegible] is that Jack Medica of [illegible] comes the closest to matching [illegible] graceful progress but it was doubted that he would be able to keep it up as long or as [illegible] the [illegible] in the final of the 400 [illegible] tomorrow.

FIGHTERS CURB FOREST FIRES

Crisis Believed Passed Although Flames Still Rage in Seven States

By The Associated Press

An army of men fighting forest fires in seven states reported progress against the flames today

The damage was most extensive in the northwoods of Minnesota and Wisconsin but forestry officials regarded the crisis as past and hoped for fulfillment of possible showers weather forecast

Authorities in Minnesota and Wisconsin estimated a total of 23 000 men—CCC boys federal and state workers and a horde of volunteers—were on the front in these states and hundreds of others struggled with uncounted fires in Michigan Idaho Washington Wyoming and California

A score of forest fires six of them major were reported in northwestern Alberta Canada The ranch owned by King Edward VIII of England near Calgary was not of immediate danger with flames still nine miles away

The third death blamed directly on forest fires occurred yesterday near Harrington Wis when Bert Alak 57 was [illegible] by a [illegible] tree while fighting a forest blaze In Sparta Wis 16-year old [illegible] Brund [illegible] was carrying [illegible] for firemen when he fell [illegible] with a heart attack

Twelve persons were injured in a head on automobile collision last night on a smoky road near Pennett Wis

After an airplane inspection tour A N Cockrell assistant forest supervisor at Sandpoint Idaho reported fires burning over a 20-mile area in the region of the Idaho Canadian boundary

The fire near Moskee Wyo fought by 2000 men was believed checked

Also reported under control was the Mt Hamilton fire near San Jose Calif and a force of 750 men along a 75 mile line was reduced to half

GOMPF ZONE CHANGE REFUSED BY COUNCIL

the body should represent the will of the majority He termed the transfer of the Maish property 'progressive' in that it was already in the commercial district while the Gompf property five doors south was not If we are to have a zoning ordinance for the rest of the city we want it in that neighborhood he declared

Alfred Donithen attorney for Mrs Gompf spoke briefly saying there had been no changes of opinion on either side of the controversy and that the picture remained the same He pointed out that the Gompf residence and the Maish property are in the same block

Cites Telephone Calls

Councilman Williams said he received more than 50 telephone calls in the last week from persons thanking him for his motion to reconsider the Gompf request He said he has a record of the calls including the names and addresses of the persons If we amend the ordinance for one person we should amend it for another in the same neighborhood he declared It isnt consistent It isnt fair and it isnt right not to do so

Williams asked George Alber a resident of the neighborhood why he and other neighbors objected to a nice clean filling station and not to an unsightly parking lot Mr Alber said he did not live close enough to the Maish property

STRIKE RIDDEN PLANT REOPENS

Remington Rand Resumes Operations as Police and Deputies Guard Entrances

By The Associated Press

[illegible] walked [illegible] Mayor [illegible] charged a restricted zone which Mayor Allen [illegible] under [illegible] set aside by proclamation was not maintained causing a delay of 30 minutes or more in bringing the workers into the plant

Instead of 120 pickets in the restricted zone there were several times that number enough to intimidate some workers who might have wished to work in Rumbles said

A court injunction limited to 100 the number of pickets the strikers might station at the plant The company sought five weeks ago to reopen under protection of that court order but after three days shut down again because of violence that caused injury to two score persons Four strikers have been convicted of contempt of court as a result and given jail sentences and heavy fines

Reports of threatened trouble caused Mayor Roudebush and Sheriff George A Lutz to instruct their men to be ready for anything and to prepare for continuous duty should that be necessary

The police force was increased from a total of 33 to 100 by Mayor Roudebush in an effort to meet demands by Rumbles that adequate protection be afforded workers 1 700 of whom have been affected

The strike has hinged on the question of union recognition

COUNTY BOARDS TO DECIDE ON LEMKE

By The Associated Press

* * *

More Drouth Relief Ordered

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Aug 11—A government estimate that the 1936 corn crop will be the smallest in 55 years served as a guide today to federal relief moves in the drouth area

The yield of 1 439 135 000 bushels estimated by the crop reporting board late yesterday is the lowest since 1881 when the population of the nation was only 50 155 000 as compared with more than 127 000 000 at present

Secretary Wallace and other administration officials who had anxiously awaited the forecast immediately proceeded anew with relief plans

Drouth relief officials added 30 more counties in seven states to the emergency list which now include 9 0 counties in 22 states Relief efforts are concentrated in these counties

There was some speculation as to whether President Roosevelt might use his powers under the tariff act to reduce the 25 cent per bushel tariff on corn imports or eliminate it on specific purchases for drouth needs

LEWIS GROUP DEFIES A. F. OF L. ULTIMATUM

Ignores Verdict of Executive Council Finding Them Guilty of 'Insurrection'

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Aug 11—Formally defying an ultimatum from the leadership of the American Federation of Labor John L Lewis Committee for Industrial Organization went ahead today with plans to organize steel workers and other mass production employes into huge industrial unions

At an unannounced meeting last night the committee decided to ignore the recent verdict of the A F of L executive council The council had found 10 unions affiliated with the committee guilty of fomenting insurrection within the A F of L and ordered them suspended from the federation Sept 5 unless they withdrew from the committee

Soon after the verdict Lewis president of the United Mine Workers announced informally that he and his associates would carry on This decision was affirmed by the committee itself last night

In effect the decision served notice that the committee would not disband despite the demands of the A F of L leaders

MOTIVE IS DISPUTED IN CLEVENGER CASE

Sheriff Says Assault Intended but Solicitor Says 'Sex Angle Is Out Altogether'

By The Associated Press

ASHEVILLE N C Aug 11—Authorities differed today over the motive in the Helen Clevenger murder case while preparations went forward for the trial of Martin Moore Negro hall boy charged with killing the 15-year old college girl

Sheriff Laurence E Brown said he was convinced the gangling six foot three prisoner went to the girl's room in the fashionable Battery Park hotel to assault her and killed her when she screamed

The sheriff added however he did not believe an assault was actually attempted Physicians early in the case did not agree on this phase

Disputing the sheriff's theory Solicitor Zeb V Nettles who will prosecute the case said the sex angle is out altogether

He asserted he believed Moore entered the room solely to loot it and shot the girl in a moment of panic when he was frightened by her outcry

That was the story the Negro related in a confession Sheriff Brown and other officers announced that he made after his arrest

TOLEDO O Aug 11—Maintenance crews kept natural and artificial gas flowing to the city's homes and factories today while the Toledo industrial peace board sponsored another conference to settle a strike of union gas workers

Only a skeleton staff was left on duty by the strike called by the Gas Workers union yesterday to enforce its demands for recognition of the union for collective bargaining seniority rights and wage increases

The union claims a membership of 250 among the 300 Toledo workers of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co and its affiliate the Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas Co

Members of the union were told at a meeting last night that the company would submit a counter proposal today at a meeting with a panel of the peace board

Otto Brach president of the Toledo Central Labor union said the two affiliated companies opposed the union's demand for written recognition and the demand for seniority rights which he said would protect union workers in the company's announced plan of discharging about one third of its employes in an economy program

Robert Pierce president of the union said Toledoans did not face an immediate prospect of industrial shutdowns cold meals and cold baths

U.S. URGES NATIONALS TO FLEE FROM SPAIN

New Appeal to Americans in War Zone Sent by Acting Secretary of State

By The Associated Press

A new appeal to Americans to leave the danger zone of the Spanish revolution was dispatched today from Washington by William Phillips acting secretary of state

Spanish loyalists laid down a deafening barrage of shells and bullets in the south today with a single objective which seemed at least partly achieved—stoppage of the rebel drive on the capital city of Madrid

Apparently repulsed for the time being in the Guadarrama mountains the doorway to Madrid on the north the insurgents in turn concentrated a savage attack against loyalist held communities on the peninsula's northern seaboard

The deep throated explosion of shells along the entire front abutting San Sebastian the Bay of Biscay seaside resort and Irun ostensibly betokened the opening of the rebel attack in the far north which was intended to consolidate rebel control from the Guadarramas to the ocean

Days ago Gen Emilio Mola northern Fascist commander withdrew troops from the Guadarrama front where they were sorely needed in favor of the drive on San Sebastian and other far northern communities The ultimate goal is ready access to the sea which means arms ammunition and incidentally a bolstering of rebel morale

Government troops crumpled one section of the rebel lines in the south to capture the strategic town of Adamuz 21 miles northeast of Cordoba.

PARTY LEADERS EYE PRIMARIES

Robinson and Borah Figure in Arkansas and Idaho Balloting Contests

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Aug 11—President and political leaders turned their attention temporarily from presidential politics today as state primaries—with two prominent senators seeking renomination—attracted attention

Townsendism was an issue in Arkansas as citizens there voted for everyone from United States senator down to constable Joseph T Robinson Democratic leader of the senate seeking a fifth term was opposed by Cleveland Holland Fort Smith attorney who bears the indorsement of the state Townsend plan convention and J Rosser Venable Little Rock attorney who criticized Robinson's legislative record

The $200 a month old age pension plan also featured the primary campaign in Idaho where Sen William Borah fought for the Republican nomination toward a sixth consecutive term His opponent was Byron Defenbach former state treasurer who is supported by Townsendites

C Ben Ross former cowboy and three times Idaho's governor contested for the Democratic senatorial nomination with U S Attorney John Carver

Florida had a special primary today to settle a contest between former Gov Doyle E Carlton and former Judge C O Andrews for the Democratic nomination to succeed the late Sen Park Trammell

While President Roosevelt and Gov Landon prepared for coming speeches their supporters were active in the field

After a Washington meeting in which they pledged themselves yesterday to strive for reelection of Mr Roosevelt as a basis for establishment of a liberal party in 1940 state leaders of the pro-new deal labor's Non Partisan league scattered to their homes today to intensify campaign work

Continuing a campaign swing into the northwest Republican Chairman John D M Hamilton said WPA has called for bids for the preparation of films showing relief projects declaring the pictures are to be distributed in the guise of news reels

President Roosevelt plans to make a speech on foreign relations at Chautauqua N Y Friday night during a tour of flood damaged sections of Pennsylvania and New York Gov Landon who planned to journey from Topeka today for a brief vacation in Colorado will speak at Chautauqua later in the month

POMP MARKS RITES FOR REP ZIONCHECK

By The Associated Press

SEATTLE Wash Aug 11 — Military pomp and ceremony figured today in funeral arrangements for Washington's playboy congressman Rep Marion A Zioncheck who plunged to death Friday from a fifth floor window

A 17 gun salute at Fort Lawton and an army bugler's taps at the graveside were included in the afternoon funeral services

The flag draped casket was guarded by two marines

Rev Fred W Shorter who presided at Zioncheck's only public address since the congressman returned with his bride from Washington D C this summer was to deliver the funeral sermon

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Enuresis

Enuresis or bed wetting as it is more commonly called is a common complaint of many children. While usually one of the embarrassments of early childhood, it occasionally persists for several years.

The importance of this symptom is frequently overlooked and sometimes too little attention is given to it. This is unfortunate because it may be a sign of something demanding serious attention.

As a rule the normal child learns to control the bladder by the end of the second year. If after this period bed wetting persists it becomes a real problem. If unchecked the condition may continue until puberty. Do not assume it is a natural weakness and that the child will outgrow it.

A medical examination is necessary because enuresis is often caused by some physical defect. In little boys it may be due to an adherent or tight foreskin. In such a case circumcision is advised.

It may be due to some irritation or inflammation of the genitals. Sometimes it is a result of intestinal worms or fissures in the rectum. Usually it is found in highly strung and nervous children.

In many cases no organic defect can be detected and then it must be assumed that the cause is faulty habit training. Children who are afflicted with enuresis should be instructed in routine habits. This training should begin at an early age, preferably during infancy.

The diet should be simple and free from [illegible] and irritating foods. Encourage the child to empty the bladder before retiring for the night. Some physicians recommend that the child sleep without any pillows and even suggest that the foot of the bed be elevated. This prevents the pressure of urine against the neck of the bladder.

It may be necessary to awaken the child at periodic intervals during the night. At first the child should be awakened every four hours. After a while twice a night, perhaps at ten p m and 6 a m will be enough. This method of procedure is often the only means of bringing about complete cure.

During the day time the child should be taught to retain the urine as long as possible. This strengthens the bladder, so to speak, and helps to guard against enuresis. The necessary medication will be prescribed by your doctor.

The Stars Say—

For Wednesday Aug 12

THIS MAY prove to be a day of fair fortune for those in the employment of others but for others there are signs of vexatious obstacles, delays, postponements and disappointments. There may be a bereavement or illness at the root of these impediments. It would be wise to accept these with calm philosophy and not let the mind be excited or distressed.

Those whose birthday it is if in employment may have a year of rather favorable conditions with favors or tokens of appreciation from superiors. Otherwise there are omens of obstacles, postponements and sorrows, probably through illness or bereavement. But the mind should be held from undue distress or melancholy by a philosophical attitude.

A child born on this day may be alert and clever but prone to depressions and introspection. He should make his best success in employment.

Notable nativity: Pauline Frederick, movie actress.

DIRECTS RECEIVER TO PAY CREDITORS

A J Berry Authorized To Disburse $10 418 in Caledonia Case

Arthur J Berry, receiver for the Caledonia concern of Mooney & Cleveland Co, has been authorized in common pleas court to pay $10,418.24 now on hand to creditors of the partnership.

Payment of all claims of $100 or less will be made first and the balance will be prorated among creditors having larger claims. Valid claims against the company total $73,6[illegible], Mr Berry's application to the court show. The two largest creditors are A E Mooney, one of the three partners in the concern, and the National City Bank & Trust Co.

Mr Berry in his application says that if the partnership hasn't sufficient property to pay all claims in full the partners will be held personally responsible to make up the balance.

The receiver also reported that he has sold 40 acres of land in Claridon township to Mr and Mrs Henry Burch for $7 500. The court confirmed the sale.

The Play Is Ended

Rep [illegible] summarily [illegible] ally th[illegible] while [illegible] the public [illegible] from the [illegible] [illegible] spirits of self exhibit[illegible] and [illegible] up all [illegible] of the [illegible] of eccentric [illegible] prank made him perhaps the most ridiculed and publicized member of the house

Yet behind his clowning and buffoonery behind his [illegible] for Zion check Zippers there must have lain some serious motivation or possibly some sadness Perhaps a clue might be found in the incoherent farewell note he left a note in which he wrote My only hope in life was to improve an unfair economic system Plausibility is added to this line when it is recalled that early in his legal career Rep Zioncheck was defending attorney in several labor cases

Whatever delusions or depressions weighed upon this 35 year old representative who was brought here from his native Poland as a child it is certain an eccentric and perhaps startling career has been ended by death The clown clowned and the audience laughed But now the play is ended it will be charitable to remember that no one knows what lies on a man's heart to oppress him

Blue Wednesday.

Velocity dollars in Alberta apparently are off to a flying start Put into circulation this week by the provincial government as part of a speed recovery movement already they have been accepted by many large groups and appear to be circulating freely In fact the speed with which they pass from hand—if the theory works—is likely to be remarkable for every person who holds a velocity dollar on Wednesday must affix a penny stamp to it before he can use it as currency

Like scrip has done in many communities of depression hit America the velocity dollars may do their part in an emergency notwithstanding opposition of orthodox theorists Yet behind the humorous and serious aspects of this speedy money lies one undeniable evil

It could be argued that the velocity plan is circulating money which otherwise would remain idle It has been said that by this plan many government employes and relief clients are receiving money which would not have been available from regular revenues Yet it can not be denied that the stamps affixed to velocity dollars are another form of taxation Albertans in fact are paying a 4 per cent tax for the privilege of using this new money

Accustomed as they are to the annoying sales tax Americans will not expect Albertans to revolt against this latest impost but the fact remains that it is an ingenious new form of taxation

A Tough Nut

There is no getting around it whatever happens whatever is done about it the relief problem remains a tough nut to crack

Ohioans know the nut can't be smashed open with the $6,500,000 hammer the general assembly provided before adjourning They debate whether WPA should be shrunk or expanded thus increasing or lessening the state's load or whether community or state administration would be the more advisable Meanwhile New Jersey legislators made a positive decision when they returned all relief administration responsibility back to the local communities and made available for the rest of the year only $1,000,000 of state funds

B[illegible] [illegible] was one of the less dignified [illegible] during the New Jersey legislature [illegible] the unemployed delegation encamped in the state capitol Many social workers and [illegible] interested believed the state [illegible] negligent in adopting its [illegible]

Asking upon behalf of the U S conference of mayors for a national increase of 500,000 WPA workers Mayor LaGuardia of New York also scored the New Jersey relief policy By undermining the health of its own unemployed the mayor declared New Jersey is creating a health menace for New York City

Excellent Advice

A report by the majority of an American Bar association committee studying the state of popular rights and liberties gently chides the careless assertion that a dictatorship has been established in the United States One of the signers of the report it will be noticed is Charles P Taft II who has been retained by Gov Landon as an economic adviser

It is refreshing to hear at least one moderate comment on so touchy a subject More than that it is important to know that an organization of such standing probably does not share the alarmist views of those who can find nothing too awful to believe and to say about the Roosevelt administration Perhaps as the minority of the committee charge the majority has made only a superficial investigation but at least it has made some attempt to pin down the assertion that congress has lost its control over government

If there were no other reason the report would seem to be worth reading for one excellent piece of advice included in it There must be a more eager regard for the constitutional system by congress the American Bar association believes If the system is to be preserved In other words the best way to prevent a dictatorship isn't to charge that one already has been established but to see to it that no man weak enough to surrender the power of the congress ever has a chance to cast a vote in the house or the senate

Lawrence Says Buffalo Picture Resembles Wilson Hughes Situation of 20 Years Ago Landon Gains

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1936 by The Marion Star

BUFFALO [illegible] Aug 11—Twenty years ago [illegible] in the [illegible] New York [illegible] the then president [illegible] increased the [illegible]

[illegible] of the presidential [illegible] currents of political [illegible] Republican ticket [illegible] would appear to be less sure of carrying the [illegible] as for Erie county he seems [illegible] lead

[illegible] of course have much [illegible] the Democrats have [illegible] and a good deal of a [illegible] in the recent mistakes of the Democrat[illegible] But the resentment against the [illegible] group is such that it [illegible] national Democratic ticket

[illegible] to be noticed in November 1932 [illegible] county went Republican by 20,000 while just a year before [illegible] Lehman carried the county for the Democratic ticket by about 2,000 [illegible] the Republican organization to preserve that same tide for Gov Landon this year

* * *

This is one of the places where the new Republican [illegible] is more than a hope it is a reality Edwin F Jaeckle the county chairman was one of the first to declare for Gov Landon notwithstanding the hesitant attitude of the down east bosses And as a reward Mr Jaeckle has the honor of welcoming Gov Landon here later this month in his first speech in the east

Father Coughlin has been here in behalf of the Lemke ticket and while he has a substantial following the impression gained in many quarters not hitherto friendly to Representative Mead Democrat is that the attack by the eminent radio priest actually made votes for Mr Mead because of the extreme nature of the verbal assault

Incidentally there is very little in common between the Townsendites and the Lemke ticket and it is beginning to look as if a merger of the two elements is not as simple as it has been reported

But whatever the final lineup of these third party groups it seems clear that they will take away more votes here from the Roosevelt ticket than from Landon

As for issues being discussed I find on almost every side an emphasis on new deal spending together with the growing belief that much of it especially in the WPA was waste or political pap The Democrats realize they are on the defensive and are endeavoring to point to some of the worthwhile WPA projects as evidence of the fact that the people have got something for their money

What is impressive here is the attitude of the small business men They recall with some degree of bitterness their experiences with the NRA They talk of present improvement in terms of future tribute to the tax collector There is a deep seated feeling that while business profits are better the government is going to take a much larger slice of these profits through the new tax bill and hence the merchants aren't looking backward over their shoulders at what has happened but at what is coming

The business elements large and small are almost unanimous in their opposition to the new deal While the rank and file of the voters do not express any such depth of feeling one way or the other still it is significant that questions are being asked as to the why and the wherefore of so much business opposition to Mr Roosevelt Curiosity on the subject has been aroused and it has made August a much more political month than any August that I have ever observed in the last six presidential campaigns

* * *

I have had occasion to interview persons sympathetic with the new deal persons who have absolute faith in Mr Roosevelt and who believe that whatever his mistakes he should be forgiven because he at least tried to do something Their principal point is that the voters will cast a grati*tude* vote

It is clear that much of the labor vote here has always been Democratic so the pro labor issues are not sufficient to give Mr Roosevelt the edge As for party lines they seem to be about as they have always been hereabouts with the single exception that the word Democrat has received a black eye because of the charge against the city hall Democrats who appear to have earned the castigation not only of the Roosevelt spokesmen in the Democratic party here but at national headquarters too Anyway the Democratic leadership encouraged by Chairman Farley has nominated a county ticket that is expected to bolster up the national cause Gov Lehman seems stronger in this section than Mr Roosevelt and will run ahead of the President Western New York looks just as it did in 1916 when the Republican national ticket carried Erie county by a substantial majority

Behind the News

Men and Affairs Under The Washington Spotlight

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON Aug 11—Democratic moguls are not upset about the Gallup poll as you may believe Those who are not trying to smile it away entirely have a valid excuse for believing it does not necessarily mean bad news for President Roosevelt

The only votes that count are electoral not popular Dr Gallup's latest electoral figures showed 276 for Landon (less than half of them listed as safe) and 255 for Mr Roosevelt (all but 22 labeled safe) This division is based on an expected popular vote of 52 per cent for Roosevelt and 48 per cent for Landon exclusive of the independent candidates

Anyone trying to call the result of an election on the basis of a margin so narrow is obviously involved in a hazardous undertaking But the hazards increase sharply under the sample ballot system used by Dr Gallup who polled only 130,000 voters whereas upward of 40,000,000 persons are expected to vote The only safe deduction which wise politicians are making is that the result would be close if the vote were taken today

Even the more extensive Literary Digest poll has never been faced with the necessity of calling a close election None has been close since 1916

Thaw

Chairman Eccles of Federal Reserve went to Hyde Park recently to tell Mr Roosevelt that credit at last was unfreezing His announcement got front page recognition everywhere but his verbal statement to the press contained no figures If you will consult financial weathermen you will find the thaw is appreciable probably strong enough to indicate a trend but the total volume is still comparatively low

The best line on commercial credit is in the figures showing loans by member banks in 101 leading cities exclusive of loans on real estate and securities These loans amounted to $3,600,000,000 for the week of July 22 compared with $3,500,000,000 for the week ended May 6 In other words an increase of $100,000,000 in commer*cial credit within two and one half* months June was $36,000,000 higher than April and April $105,000,000 more than March The current figure is roughly about five eighths of the average volume of 1929

Wise financial prophets say the banks may never again do the commercial lending business they did in the old days The loans of 1929 for instance included a lot of small ones to the local grocer or drug store Now the large chain stores do not need such loans to finance their business Also the government is now making a lot of loans which the banks would have made in 1929

For these reasons any increase in commercial loans these days is noteworthy and not comparable with the totals of the pre depression era

Official Excuses

Since Chief Pow Wow the big peace man tossed feathers all over the office of Assistant War Secretary Woodring the War Department has decided that a certain Capt Ritchie of the air corps is too crowded in his own room Capt Ritchie hereafter will sit in the outer office of Mr Woodring The Woodring outer office heretofore has been occupied only by two women secretaries who have had no experience stopping feather throwers

The department patiently explains however that Capt Ritchie is not being moved to protect Woodring from any one who may take a notion to throw something heavier than a feather Nothing like that at all It is just a question of Capt Ritchie being crowded

The official explainer must have neglected to notice Capt Ritchie's old office before making the explanation There is only one desk in it aside from Ritchie's but in the new Woodring outer office there are two besides his

Moral

The only point is that the war department has one of the few really bad excuse finding departments in Washington Military training has neglected this vital part of Washington activity War men just do not seem to understand politics except the personal phase

If the same thing had happened at the treasury Mr Morgenthau would have explained Capt Ritchie's presence by saying he wanted the captain to keep close watch on the crooks in Wall street Postmaster General Farley would have said he wanted to keep close tab on the airplane industry (Ritchie is a leading flyer) etc

Naval offices are guarded by marines but the army offices had no guards until Chief Pow Wow's visit pointed the need Other war offices are expecting to get guards like Capt Ritchie who is a six foot Arkansan with a box cut jaw air chauffeur to the army bigwigs He will certainly break the Olympic record for throwing feather throwers if any more come around

G-Man Bureau Run at Profit

For Every $1 Spent $7 in Recovered Property

BY RUSSELL TURNER
United Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON Aug [illegible] [illegible] Hoover revealed today every dollar spent [illegible] bureau of investigation [illegible] last fiscal year approx[illegible] was saved in recovered [illegible] [illegible] or savings effected to [illegible] government

Total value of property [illegible] and savings [illegible] ment he said was $[illegible] compared with $5,000,000 operating the bureau

Summing up the bureau's [illegible] during the past [illegible] Hoover revealed that [illegible] [illegible] had been obtained [illegible] which his G-men [illegible] Sentences imposed he said [illegible] 1116 years in addition [illegible] life and two death sentences

All Kidnapings Solved

While not mentioning [illegible] [illegible] two weeks this [illegible] the nation's four most [illegible] criminals and kidnapers—[illegible] Karpis Harry Campbell [illegible] Moran and Theodore H[illegible] son Jr—were captured [illegible] pointed out the bureau has [illegible] [illegible] formed [illegible] enactment of the [illegible] Kidnaping act in June 1932 [illegible] imposed have [illegible] [illegible] 71 [illegible] sentences and [illegible] [illegible] he said referring [illegible] 65 kidnaping cases in which [illegible] bureau took part in addition [illegible] other sentences totaling 2,113 [illegible] [illegible] and two days three [illegible] committed suicide five [illegible] killed [illegible] died by murder at hands of their fellow gangsters and two were lynched

Achievements Are Listed

Hoover's report also noted [illegible] achievements of the bureau during the year

Recovery of 2,496 stolen cars valued at $1,020,[illegible] in which the bureau took part [illegible] pointed out that since enactment of the National Motor Vehicle Theft Act in October 1919 [illegible] of 47,171 stolen vehicles valued [illegible] $20,043,[illegible] had been recovered [illegible] cases handled by the bureau

Conviction of 86 persons under the federal extortion act approved in July 1932 whose sentences totaled 401 years

Conviction of 73 persons charged with robbery or attempted robbery of federal reserve FDIC or national banks whose sentences totaled 1,1[illegible] years and one [illegible] sentence In this connection Hoover noted that due to the activities of the FBI in these cases insurance companies recently announced a reduction of 20 per cent in bank insurance rates in [illegible] states

Location of 1,089 federal fugitives from justice In addition [illegible] [illegible] 31 fugitives from [illegible] were found through efforts of bureau's fingerprint identification division

Fingerprint Files Expanded

Commenting specifically on fingerprint division Hoover [illegible] that on July 1 there were [illegible] 916 sets of fingerprint records [illegible] file of which 1,021,04[illegible] received during the 1936 fiscal [illegible]

Hoover also pointed to [illegible] of the national stolen property [illegible] with which he hopes eventually [illegible] be able to classify all stolen property so that suspected stolen [illegible] can be identified easily as one of the important accomplishments [illegible] the year

Still another bureau activity which earned Hoover's praise [illegible] the national police training academy which conducts [illegible] scientific crime detection [illegible] specially picked representatives [illegible] municipal and state police [illegible]

Carefree Summer Days—
Why Not Carefree Winter Days?
The New JANITROL

YOU CAN HAVE THEM with GAS heat

Why did you anticipate the coming of summer with such enthusiasm? Wasn't it because it meant no more tiresome furnace tending — no more cleaning up soot and ashes sifted through the house — no more ailments resulting from teeter-totter temperatures inside your home? You can have the same carefree days all winter long if you have automatic gas heat in your home.

Many families who heat with gas tell us that it is worth much more than other fuels. Yet, all incidental expenses considered, it costs no more. May we make a free heating survey of your home and tell you the cost of converting your furnace to a modern gas fired unit as well as estimate the cost of gas heat for the coming winter?

Pat picked up her bags and they [illegible] toward the car, talking in [illegible] meaningless sentences [illegible] who have not yet become [illegible] to each other.

The house as they turned in the [illegible] seemed to hold out its [illegible] to them. It was unbearably [illegible] after Mrs. O'Connor's, Carol [illegible] it had acquired graciousness and serenity in so few years.

* * *

Milly eyed her critically. "You're a little thinner, aren't you?"

"Probably. The first month or so is always strenuous. After that you can relax." She looked at Milly. "You look grand, sugar."

Milly's face was flushed and her eyes were shining. "Oh, I'm getting fat darn it! Middle-aged spread. Did you have supper?"

"Did I! In solitary state. It was marvellous after months of feeding with the public. I ate for almost an hour."

"But wouldn't you like a glass of milk and some cake? I want to fatten you up while you're here." Milly's affection needed some tangible outlet.

"I'd love it. Let's all eat cake."

They trooped into the kitchen and draped themselves on stools and over the table. Milly bustled happily.

"Nut cake!" Carol said. "I'll bet you made it for the prodigal."

Pat grinned. "We've had the calf on ice for a week. But this," his voice was ludicrously domestic, "isn't as good as I usually make. I think it was the eggs."

Their earlier constraint was gone. They settled down to the business of re-knitting the close fabric of their relationship.

Millie eyed Carol critically.

At eleven o'clock Milly assumed a firm expression. "It's time for bed. Carol must get plenty of rest while she's here . . . You're in your own room, Carol."

They went upstairs, still laughing at nothing. Carol sniffed her room like a dog, catching the scent of strange powder and perfume that lingered like the ghost of Edith Andrews. This room too seemed momentarily unfamiliar, especially with someone else's smell in it. She opened her bag and began taking out her own belongings to lay the ghost.

While she was brushing her hair Pat appeared, and sprawled his length across her bed. She smiled fondly at him, and felt the catch at her heart that so often came with the sight of him.

"Well, Patrick—what about it?"

He lay with his hands locked behind his head and watched her. "Nothing. What about it yourself?"

"I don't know."

"Is it working?"

"Not particularly. But then I hardly expected it to. There've been one or two bright spots. . ." She told him about Denis and Mike, and he listened keenly.

* * *

Pat looked thoughtful. "Sometimes you use your brain too much. Not in this case, I imagine, because I sort of agree with you. But when the time comes I want you to stop thinking and begin feeling. Let yourself coast."

"I know. If the time ever comes, I think I will." By association of ideas she asked casually:

"How's Don, by the way?"

Mirth flickered in Pat's eyes and disappeared. "I wanted to tip you off about that. Brace yourself: Don's falling for our little sister. Since he couldn't make love to the one who was dear . . ."

She turned in her chair and stared at him. "No fooling?"

"No fooling." His face was sober. "It's hard on your pride, of course, but when you get used to it I think you'll approve."

She faced the mirror and rubbed cold cream carefully and mechanically from her face. Don and Jill . .

"How does Jill feel about it?"

Pat knit his thick, fair brows. "I don't quite know; she probably feels uncomfortable about snatching your lover—even unintentionally."

"But he isn't," Carol said quickly. "If he were I wouldn't be in Ashboro." She began to smile. "I'm already getting used to it, and I think it might be perfect."

"Sure. They both want the same things: home and family and fireside...."

Pat's voice was hungry, and she wanted to go and throw her arms around him. Instead she said:

"Thank heaven you warned me. Wouldn't it have been awful if I'd appropriated him when he came, just assuming that I was still the light of his life?"

Don and Jill. And three months ago it had been Don and Carol. Pat was right; her pride had been jarred, although justice told her that Don was doing the wise thing in taking her at her word. But aside from her family this severed her last thin link with Meredith.

Pat said gruffly. "I never saw you do any appropriating, even when you had him; but I knew you'd want to know. Of course," he added, "seeing you again may bust it wide open...."

And if you don't recall want him, I hope you won't let it, Carol heard his mind saying. She answered his unspoken request.

"Don't worry. It won't."

Milly poked her head in the door. "Go to bed, you owls. You've got two weeks to talk in."

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Complete Transaction to Convey Funds to Brixton.

AS Mr. Winslow outlined the procedure by which I might transfer to Samuel Brixton—without any name appearing in the transaction—the money from Robert Savarin's legacy which I had planned to lend him, I felt suddenly transported back to a primary grade arithmetic class with a teacher attempting to drill the multiplication table into my head.

But I cared little what Mr. Winslow or anyone else thought of my financial acumen. It was sufficient for me that almost the last detail of my problem had been solved.

"Thank you so much," I said. "Everything is very clear to me now. What do you wish me to sign?"

"If you'll just wait here!"

Slip Is Signed

He rose from his swivel chair and crossed to the railing.

"I'll be back directly," he finished, and opening the little gate through which we had entered his sanctum, he went to the teller's desk and gave a direction. When he came back, he bore in his hand a formal-looking slip of paper.

"I'll make this out myself," he said, and something in his intonation told me that he was doing something usually delegated to a lesser official.

He filled in the form rapidly, repeating the sum I wished, and carefully writing down the name and address of Samuel Brixton. Then he handed it over to me with his pen.

With a sudden panicky feeling that I was doing something irrevocable, I signed the slip and handed it back to Mr. Winslow.

"There!" he said. "That is all there is to it, unless you wish to carry the check yourself, which I think unwise."

"I do not wish to carry it," I said. "I would much rather follow the plan you outlined. But I wish you would tell me why it should be unwise to carry the check when you say it could be stopped if lost or stolen."

Madge Gets Warning

"Suppose you were held up," he said, "as might happen. This check would do the hold-up man no good, but it would reveal to him that you or some friend of yours was able to control such a sum of money. And that is dangerous knowledge to make public in these days."

Again I felt the fancied touch of an icy finger.

"Then," I queried, "it would be unwise for me to telephone Mr. Brixton where he may expect this money?"

"Most unwise," Mr. Winslow replied emphatically. "The bank to which we send this money will notify him that the funds are waiting there for him. If you wish to tell him of this yourself, I should advise you to do it either in person or by post. Do not telephone or telegraph."

"I won't," I promised fervently. "How long will it be before he is paid the money?"

Finish Transaction

"Three days at the longest," Mr. Winslow replied.

"That will be splendid," I said, remembering that Samuel Brixton had told me he could wait longer than a week for the actual delivery of the money if he could be assured within 48 hours that it was coming.

"Is this all, then?" Mrs. Cosgrove put in.

"Yes, that completes the transaction," the banker replied, and Mrs. Cosgrove and I moved toward the door.

"Well that didn't take long, did it?" Mrs. Cosgrove said as we descended the steps of the bank. "And look! There are the men now!"

I turned my eyes in the direction she indicated and saw Mr. Cosgrove just easing his car into a parking space near mine.

We crossed quickly to them and I spoke to Mr. Cosgrove with smiling firmness.

Cosgroves Are Guests

"I've waited to tell you until now," I said, "so that you wouldn't have a chance to register any objections, but it's time now for you to know that you and your wife are lunching with us. You two should be authorities on Kingston so we want you to choose a nice restaurant."

Mr. Cosgrove looked at his wife reproachfully.

"Is this your doing?" he asked. "We should be the hosts in our home town."

"But not this time," Dicky struck in with easy assurance and a touch of authority, which, as is invariable the case with Dicky, gave him his own way.

TOWN HALL STARS AT PALACE TODAY

Two Performances Booked for Tonight Following Matinee Show.

Fred Allen's Town Hall Stars gave the first of three performances at the Palace theater today at 3 p. m. Tonight's shows will be at 8:30 and 11.

The troupe of 16 winners on Allen's Hour of Smiles NBC program came to Marion yesterday and after tonight's performances will go to Lima for appearance Wednesday.

Versatility is the keynote of the show, and each member of the troupe was given professional coaching before going on the Roxy theater stage in New York City.

The bill offers a variety of entertainment in its colored boy, Woodrow Wilson, who does a tap dance on roller skates, Elaine Kay who impersonates Katharine Hepburn, Mae West, Shirley Temple and others, Hazel Geary whose forte is singing and tap dancing, Eleanore Friese who is little bigger than a midget and plays bell chimes, Howard Reid, a colored boy who is the clown of the troupe, Dorothy and Lew Rella who divert with novelty offerings and the Two Spices, a sister team who do comedy dancing and acrobatics.

The show is kept moving by James Alexander, in the role of master of ceremonies. He sings the high baritone type of numbers and has already had several offers for pictures. Rounding out the show is a six-person Hill Billy band.

Bret Harte's famous short story, "M'liss" will be on the screen, with Ann Shirley playing the leading role.

CHARLES C. MILLER DIES AT HOME HERE

Two-year Illness Fatal To Marion Man.

Charles Commodore Miller, 24, died last night at 10:13 p. m. at his home at 460 Lee street following a two-year illness of tubercular meningitis.

He was the last child of Mr. and Mrs. Commodore Miller, three brothers and two sisters having preceded him in death. He was born Feb. 13, 1912, in Ironton, to Commodore and Emma Small Miller.

The body may be viewed at the home from 6 to 8 tonight. At 9 it will be sent to Ironton for funeral service Thursday. Burial will be made in the Oakland cemetery in Lawrence county.

MARION DELEGATION HOME FROM MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr and Mrs. Flora Irey of 255 South High street and Miss Mary Ellen Irey of east of Marion, returned last night from Lake Harbor, Mich., where they attended a Bible conference sponsored by the Young People's Fellowship club.

Among those present last week from Marion and vicinity were Edwin Irey, Miss Dorothy Peters and Russell Arthur of Marion, Miss Pearl Tuttle and Lester Shaffer of Cardington, and Miss Louise George and Miss Mary Isabelle Skaggs of Claridon. Rev. Marvin Lewis of Cleveland, Tenn., who has been preaching in and near Marion, was a member of the party. Miss Tuttle is state organizer of the Fellowship club group.

B. F. BUTCHER, 75, DIES IN GALLIPOLIS

Benjamin F. Butcher, 75, died last night at his home at Gallipolis, following an illness of several months. He was a stonemason, and prior to leaving Marion a year ago, made his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Baker of the Likens Chapel road.

Aside from Mrs. Baker, another daughter, Mrs. George Bolesky of Mansfield, and two sons, Floyd and William Butcher of Athens, survive.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at Gallipolis, and burial made at that place.

August Is Proving A Busy and Popular Month For

FUR COATS

Now Is The Time To Buy — Because Fur Prices Are Advancing Daily!

THERE'S lots of interest in fur coats—for our August prices are considerably lower than those you'll have to pay a couple months hence. All of our furs were bought before the recent fur tax and if we were to buy these same coats today the prices would necessarily be from ten to twenty per cent higher. Buy on our convenient payment or layaway plan.

GOOD MORNING MR. STEBBINS
GOOD MORNING, TOMMY— HOW ARE YOU?
MR. SMYTHE WOULDN'T LET ME EMPTY HIS WASTE PAPER BASKET THIS MORNING—MR. STEBBINS—HE SAID YOU WERE GOING TO DO IT!
YOU TELL SMYTHE THAT I WON'T EMPTY ANY ONE'S WASTE PAPER BASKET!
MR. SMYTHE WANTS TO SEE YOU RIGHT AWAY, SIR!

Daily Pattern for Home Use

BY ANNE ADAMS

TTER BLOUSE PATTERN FOR YOU TO MAKE TWO WAYS

Here's the captivating blouse you've been looking for to lend a note of [illegible] to your autumn wardrobe—Pattern 4041! Think how it would [illegible] up last year's suit or enhance your new autumn ensemble! Select [illegible] satin or a new, dull surfaced crepe for a "dress up" version and make it with long sleeves fashioned all in one with the chic scarf and graceful bow. You'll like the short-sleeved version in a smart [illegible] crepe with contrasting buttons and a matching flower. Easily made is this charming Anne Adams blouse and a perfect style for informal or dressy occasions.

Pattern 4041 is available in sizes [illegible] 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and [illegible]. Size 16 takes 2¼ yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

Be sure to order your copy of the Anne Adams Pattern Book! All the lovely clothes you need for the season are pictured in smart, simple models that are even fun to make. Pretty house dresses and [illegible]. Fetching frocks for [illegible]. The latest slenderizing designs for [illegible]. Practical models for children. Advice on fabrics and sewing. Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Twenty-five cents for both when ordered together.

Address orders to The Marion Star, Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th St., New York, N. Y.

LIST FOLLOWS ERRATIC TREND

Gains and Losses About Equal During Sluggish Performance.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—The stock market was in a sluggish mood today with moderate gains and losses about even.

Improved by fractions to a point or so were U. S. Steel, Crucible Steel, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, North American, American Water Works, American Can, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Baldwin Locomotive preferred, Allis-Chalmers and Pittsburgh Screw and Bolt.

Allied Chemical fell for a loss of about 4 points following Monday's abrupt decline which contrasted with the strength of last week. Columbian Carbon lifted about 3 points or so. Case slipped about 2 points.

Losers of fractions to around a point were Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Montgomery Ward, Consolidated Edison, Anaconda, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Continental Can, General Electric, du Pont, Westinghouse, New York Central and Southern Pacific.

Corn was fractionally irregular on the heels of an early rally prompted by the government's estimate of a sharply reduced crop. Wheat also skidded a little lower after initial steadiness. Cotton moved forward modestly. Foreign exchanges were mixed. Italian loans rallied again. Corporate bonds were narrow.

In the department of agriculture's report showing sharply reduced corn and wheat crops financial circles saw two unfavorable repercussions.

First, it was pointed out, it indicates materially reduced purchasing power in the afflicted regions.

Second, as some see it, the smaller crops likely will bring scarcity prices and a sizeable advance in food prices. In turn, they hold, consumers paying more for foodstuffs will have less to spend for other products.

The French franc opened .00¼ of a cent higher at 6.58¾ cents. The pound sterling was down ¼ of a cent at $5.02¾.
